

Side-Event COP 23 – Bonn Zone

Saturday, 11th of November 2017, 13h30-15h

Location: Energies 2050 Pavilion, Bonn Zone, COP23, Bonn

Audience: international experts, opinion leaders and policy/decision makers from major IFIs, IGOs, NGOs, national FIs, commercial banks active in the Mediterranean region.

Note: you should be accredited by the COP23 secretariat to enter the BONN zone.

Objective:

- Presentation of the main findings of the research carried out by eco-union and the European Institute of the Mediterranean
- Reflection on barriers, actors and opportunities to improve financing of green economy in the Mediterranean
- Discussion on policy recommendations, actions and roadmaps

Supported by

PROGRAMME

Panelist

- Jeremie Fosse, president, eco-union
- Stéphane Pouffary, director, Energies 2050
- Maeve McLynn, Finance and Subsidies Policy Coordinator, Climate Action Network Europe
- Jan-Willem Van de Ven, associate director, Climate Finance and Carbon Market, EBRD
- Santiago Lorenzo, Global Expert – Climate Finance, WWF International

13h30 Presentation of the Mediterranean Green Finance Report

13h50 Reactions from the panelist

14h30 Debate with the participants

15h END

+ INFO: www.medgreeneconomy.org

Contact:

- Jérémie Fosse, president
Jeremie.fosse@ecounion.org
Cell: +34 629 694 001

Supported by

